MANY BAKESHOPS OPEN. N. Y. UNION WILL GO OUT.

BREAK STRIKE SLOWLY

Bosses to Allow Men to Return-No General Trouble.

The Citizens' Industrial Association for the first time since its headquarters were moved from Battle Creek, Mich., to New-York took a hand with employes yesterday in co-operating in the open shop movement. A committee of eleven members of the Hebrew Boss Bakers' Association called at the rooms of the C'tizens' Association yesterday and had a two hours' talk with President C. W. Post and Secretary James A. Emery, of the association, in which every point of the dispute with the bakers was gone over. The boss bakers accepted the co-operation of the Citizens' Industrial Association and sanctioned a statement which was issued by Mr Post. It was in part as follows:

Post. It was in part as follows:

The union officials deputized themselves as sole arbitrators of failure to comply with the terms of the contract and called a strike without opportunity for discussion and adjustment. Both sides presented good reasons showing why the other side broke the contract, notwithstanding the fact that the contract was only about three months old. The deposits put up by the employing bakers were declared forfeited by the unions, but the irresponsibility of the signers of the union contract was clearly shown.

Both sides have been brought to agree upon the question of wages, hours of work and proper sanitary conditions. The union insists upon the employment of union labor only. A certain flour trust might with the same reason demand that the master bakers buy flour only of that trust and use the label of that trust to the exclusion of all other millers whatsoever. The labor trust attempts to corner the market and force the buyers of labor to purchase only of that particular labor trust.

The people at large have been deprived of bread not by the action of the master bakers.

The people at large have been deprived of bread, not by the action of the master bakers, who have been at all times ready to furnish it, who have been at all times ready to furnish it, but directly because of the acts of the strikers. The master bakers will open their shops tonight and endeavor to furnish bread to the people at the old prices. A demand will be made upon the police department to furnish adequate protection for independent workmen who desire to return to work and for the master bakers who will undertake to supply the people with bread. The two sides to the controversy having been brought together on the subject of wages, hours brought together on the subject of wages, hours and sanitary conditions, this association will not support the labor trust in its unreasonable demand for the exclusive right to the sale of labor, nor in its acts of violence against inde-pendent workmen and bakers seeking to supply

Mr. Post supplemented this statement by say ing that if the police did not give proper protec tion to the men at work the Citizens' Associa tion would inform the police department.

"We will have men to watch that the police department furnishes all the men necessary, he said. "We intend to be fair to the strikers as well as to the employers.

The threat of a general sympathetic strike of the bakers vanished into thin air yesterday. At a meeting of the strike committee of the bakers and the Greater New-York Executive Board of the Bakers' Unions held yesterday in Jefferson Hall, No. 92 Columbia-st., it was decided that no general strike would be called, but that the bakers would make individual agreements with the bosses, and then break up their ranks. Besides the general executive board and the strike committee there were present at the meeting International Organizer J. Heintz, of the bakers' unions; General Organizer Herman Robinson, of the American Federation of Labor; James P. Archibald, of the Central Federated Union, and Joseph Barondess. was stated that locals Nos. 305 and 163, of Brooklyn, which struck in sympathy were ready to go back to work if they were taken back on the old terms.

Previous to this Kurtz, the strike leader, who attended the meeting of the executive board, left it in a rage because a sympathetic strike was not ordered. Archibald and Barondess intended to address the strikers, but when they saw the mood they were in they refrained. It was stated that the international union had voted $1,000 to the strikers, which will be in custody of the Greater New-York Executive Board until re-The Hebrew Boss Bakers' Association met last evening at No. 232 Broome-st. and issued a statement that the master bakers granted all demands for wages, hours and sanitary conditions and will open their bakeries at once to supply the people with bread, and if the strikers try to keep the people from having bread it will be the fault of the strikers. They had placed their matters absolutely in the hands of the Citizens' Industrial Association which could Citizens' Industrial Association, which could make clear the fairness of their position, they Jacob Bock, president of the association, said that sixty of the shops were opened on Sunday night and about sixty or eighty more were opened during the day. One hundred and fifty would be started at night under police pro-

Herman Robinson, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, who was at the strike headquarters yesterday afternoon, when told of the proposition of Chairman Bock of the bosse to call in the Citizens' Industrial Association of America, declared with some heat that no union affiliated with the Federation of Labor could have any dealings with that association.

Near midnight shops began to open with from one to half a dozen men at work in them, in some instances ten men. By a short time after midnight forty shops had resumed breadmaking in the strike district. There was no trouble in the opening up. A policeman stood in front of every shop, but no strikers appeared and no crowd collected.

The strike leaders said that all the men at work were non-unionists and that they would not continue, but would leave this morning. The employers, however, said more men were willing to join them if necessary. They said more shops would open this morning, and they were jubilant. They declared the strike was almost broken and would be over to-day.

BAKERS AND PHTHISIS.

Dr. Darlington Has Little Faith in

Strikers' Tuberculosis Cry.

The officials of the Department of Health, including Commissioner Darlington, have little faith in the reports of the inroads made by tuberculosis in the ranks of the kosher bakers of the East Side. Dr. Darlington has sent an inspector of the department to the East Side to investigate the conditions said to exist in the bakeshops under the tenement houses. Dr. Darlington said yesterday:

While tubercle bacilli may be present on the hands of the bakers and be mixed with the dough, yet they are nimost certainly killed during the process of baking. Their destruction is still further insured by the bread being in a moist state. It is remarkable that among the 2,400 patients applying for treatment at the tuberculosis clinic of this department from March 1, 1804 to March 1, 1805, not a single one followed the baking trade.

CHICAGO BAKERS MAY NOT STRIKE.

Chicago, Aug. 14.-The National Executive Board of the Bakers' and Confectioners' National Union met here to-day to take up the question of calling a strike sympathetic with the bakers in New-York and Brooklyn to help the kosher bakers who are on strike there. According to board members the petition of the kosher bread bakers will be refused, and the strike extension will not be sanctioned.

STRIKERS' DEMANDS SUBMITTED. Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—The demands of the three hundred Jewish bakers in this city, who are strik ing for cleaner shops, shorter hours and fixed wages, were given to the committee of master bak ers to-day, and it is expected that the strike will be arbitrated to-morrow. The demands of the strikers are as follows: Saultary shops, ten hours a day labor, $18 for foreman baker, $14 for a dough mixer and $11 for a baker.

BISHOP COKE SMITH IMPROVING. Asheville, N. C., Aug. 14.- The condition of Bishop Coke Smith, of the Southern Methodist Church, is so much improved to-night that the attending physicians entertain strong hopes of his recovery The wife and brother of Bishop Smith are now in this city.

Secretary of International Bridge Workers Sees President Buchanan. Cleveland, Aug. 14.-President Buchanan, of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Association, arrived here to-day and at once held a conference with Secretary McNamara relative to the pending strike against the American Bridge Company. "You may say positively that the New-York union, which did not strike last Thursday, when the official order was published, will go out," said Secretary McNamara to-day.

"I will also say that a representative of ou mion has been deputized to meet the bridge company, looking to a conference of both sides of the controversy. We are satisfied that our position is a strong one and, believing in our cause, we will not at this juncture go one inch more than the bridge company toward a settlement," added Mr. McNamara.

E. W. HATCH MAY RETIRE.

Report That He, Mr. Parker and W. F. Sheehan Will Form Firm.

Lawyers in this city have expressed interest in a report that Justice Edward W. Hatch, of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the First Department, intends to resign from the bench to engage in the private practice of law in this city in company with ex-Judge Alton B. Parker and William F. Sheehan. According to the report the new firm will be known as Parker, Sheehan & Hatch, and will begin business about September 1.

A member of William F. Sheehan's law firm, at No. 32 Nassau-st., said yesterday that in the absence of Mr. Sheehan in Bar Harbor his associates could not talk about the report that Justice Hatch and ex-Judge Parker were to be Mr. Sheehan's partners in the law business. "I can neither confirm nor deny the report," he said, "but I can say that a change in the present firm may be expected."

Ex-Judge Parker's law offices adjoin and are onnected with Mr. Sheehan's offices, although the two men have not been associated in business since Mr. Parker retired from the bench.
Mr. Parker was out of town yesterday.

Buffalo, Aug. 14.-A special dispatch from Cambridge Springs, Penn., says:

Justice Edward W. Hatch is spending his vacation here. He was asked to-day if he intended to resign from the Supreme Court bench and enter the law firm of Sheehan and Parker. "Where did that come from?" asked the justice. When informed that it had been printed in New-York he said:
"I have nothing to say."
"Will you confirm the rumor?"
"I will neither deny nor confirm it."

TO SEE HUSBAND'S FAMILY

Mrs. Wood to Meet Them for First Time at Funeral.

The body of Alan W. Wood, the Pittsburg steel manufacturer who died at Roosevelt Hos pital after an operation, was taken yesterday to the office of the Stephen Merritt Burlal Company, at No. 171 Sth-ave., where a funeral service will be held at 2:30 p. m. to-day. Immediately after the service the body will be taken to the Kensico Cemetery and put in a receiving vault. Mrs. Wood, the young widow who was a chorus girl before she was married to Mr. Wood a year ago, went from her home in the Barnard, Central Park West and 71st-st., to look at her husband's body after it had been embalmed and placed in a coffin, and she exhibited much grief. She will meet at the funeral to-day, for the first time, sons and daughters of Mr. Wood, who were offended by her marriage to their father and who may possibly contest his latest will, if it is found to give to her too large a share of his estate.

Henry W. Catlin, Mrs. Wood's personal repesentative, met at the Waldorf yesterday Richard G. Wood, a brother of Alan W. Wood, and a son and daughter of Alan W. Wood. There was an agreement at the meeting as to the arrangements for the funeral to-day. It was also arranged to have Mr. Wood's latest will, executed after his marriage to Miss Goldle Lillian Mohr, read this evening, after the funeral. The will is in a safe deposit vault in this city, and neither Mr. Wood's children nor ble widew will know its provisions until it has his widow will know its provisions until it has been opened and read this evening.

Mr. Wood's estate, it was said yesterday by persons well informed about his affairs, is expected to exceed $10,000,000. Mr. Wood's two sons and four daughters, it was said, would make no objection to a provision in the will to convey a third of the estate, as her dower right, to the widow, but if the bulk of the estate was bequeathed to her the children would begin a

TYPHOID IN WASHINGTON.

Worst Outbreak in the History of the National Capital.

Washington, Aug. 14.-Twenty-nine new cases of typhoid fever and two deaths from the disease were reported to the health office to-day. The outbreak has passed in severity that of 1903, when the greatest number of persons under treatment for the disease at any one time was 224, and it has spread rapidly. Health officials are making every possible effort to fight the disease, including a house to house inspection of back yards and cellars, with a view to remedying unsanitary conditions. One bed of the new filtration plant will probably be opened to-mor-row, thus reducing to that extent the danger from typhoid and other disease germs.

NO TYPHOID EPIDEMIC.

Bath Beach Doctors Deride Fever Scare Around Gravesend Bay.

Bath Beach, just now more in the public eye than for many a long day before, has a grievance; two grievances, in fact. One is that there is some ty phold fever down that way, and the other, that some people have taken an exaggerated view of the situation. A committee of residents of Bath Beach, consisting of Dr. Earle H. Mayne, Dr. Joseph W. Malone, Dr. John E. De Mund, Dr. John A. Voorhees, Dr. S. O. Hector, Judge Cornelius Ferguson, Cromwell G. Macy, Frank C. Gaffney, Edward Stratton, jr., and Charles Hoerlein, appointed at a mass meeting of indignant residents, has set out to put Bath Beach before the public in the prope

'We don't mind the truth being told," the com mittee say, "but we are determined to stop these alarmist reports of a typhoid epidemic."

"There is no epidemic in Bath Beach," said Dr Mayne yesterday. "There are some typhoid cases but no more than the average at this time of year.

but no more than the average at this time of year. We have a complete system of sewers and no cesspools to breed typhoid or any other disease. Nor have we any private driven wells. We have as good water as any other part of Brooklyn. I have made careful inquiry, and the figures show no alarming number of typhoid cases. "In the whole 30th Ward of Brooklyn, of which Bath Beach is only a small part," Dr. Mayne continued, "there were only two deaths from typhoid from June 1 to August 8. In the last two weeks I have had no new cases of typhoid fever, Dr. Malone only one and Dr. De Mund only one in the last two months."

Dr. Cornelius, of Borough Park, whom Dr. Mayne is attending, and who was reported to have typhoid, Dr. Mayne declares hasn't typhoid at all, and Dr. Ives, who had a mild attack of the fever, is convalescent.

The Bath Beach committee adds that the Health is attending, and who was reported to have typhold. Dr. Mayne declares hasn't typhoid at all, and Dr. Ives, who had a mild attack of the fever, is convalescent.

The Bath Beach committee adds that the Health Department has not forbidden bathling in Gravesend Bay, but has merely warned people against bathing in waters polluted by sewage.

There were only two new cases of typhoid fever at the Norwegian Hospital, South Brooklyn, vesterday, and no deaths were reported from the disease in that section. All the cases in the hospital came from parts of South Brooklyn. Two other new cases were reported by that region. The Borough of Brooklyn had in all 189 cases last week.

Health Commissioner Darlington denied yesterday that typhoid was much worse than usual this year. He declared that the disease in that respect. Three years ago there were 3,800 cases of the disease in this city, two years ago 3,600, and last year 3,400. The Commissioner believes that this year will be about as had as 1903, although so far it has been little worse than 1904.

Dr. John S. Billings, Jr., Chief of the Division of Communicable Diseases, said yesterday that typhoid fever began by languor, lassitude, headache, frequently nosebleed and a general feeling of elekness that often leaves the batient guessing what alls him for several days before he realizes that he is actually unwell. The fever usually runs from twenty-one to twenty-eight days, except in the case of a relapse, which extends the confinement. Many cases of what is known as abortive typhoid appear every season. In suce, cases the favor ends in about ten days. Typhoid is slightly contagious—that is, the germs may be left on the hand of one touching a patient. If the articles that the patient handles are properly sterilized there is no danger of infection. There is need of caution from the first week a person is taken down with the disease until several weeks after he is again on his feet.

Four more cases of typhoid have been reported from lower South Brooklyn. The borough had 189 c

FOUR AFTER TOM LEE.

Chinatoren's Mayor Has Narrow Escape, He Thinks.

Tom Lee, the "Mayor of Chinatown," was summoned to the District Attorney's office yesterday by Mr. Kernochan, who wanted to ask Lee about the recent trouble with the Hep Sing Tong. Lee made an engagement with his counsel, Frank T. Lloyd, to meet him at Centre and Franklin sts. at a certain time. Lloyd was late, and while Lee was waiting on the corner for him, before going to the District Attorney's office, two of Lee's lieutenants, Jim Gung and Charlie Jong, ran up to him and said that four men, headed by Mock Duck, were laying for him, presumably to kill him. Two of these men, Lee was told, had gone along Franklin-st. and two along Leonard-st.

Lee did not wait for Mr. Lloyd, but bolted as fast as he could run to the police station under the Criminal Courts Building. There he rushed into the arms of two policemen, the bodyguard of two of the judges, who were standing on the steps. He told his story, and, with several other men, the police hurried out and made a quick tour of the block. They found two Chinamen hiding behind a truck in Leonard-st., but the two escaped along Leonard-st. and through Mulberry Bend Park. One of them, Lee alleged, was Mock Duck himself.

Lee said that he had learned that the reward of $3,000 offered for his death by the rival or-ganization in Chinatown was still in force. He said that hereafter he would not leave his rooms in Chinatown without a bodyguard. Lee went to the District Attorney's office and had his con-ference with Mr. Kernochan.

WANTS TO MOB DRIVER.

Cape May Crowd Tired of Baltimorean's Reckless "Auto" Driving.

Cape. May, N. J. Aug. 14 (Special). Thomas W. Butts, a Brooklyn lawyer, and his wife, while crossing Beach-ave, on the way to their bath house to-day, were struck by an automobile driven by Frank H. Hack, jr., of Baltimore and both were injured, but not seriously. The automobile was being driven at a speed greater than the law allows, but the position of Hack was such that he could not see Mr. and Mrs Butts and both of them were struck on the side and pushed along by the machine for four or five feet, but not run over. Both were badly bruised and so stunned that they had to be carried on stretchers to the Hotel Lafayette where they are staying. It was at first thought that Mr. Butts had been seriously injured, but an examination showed that he was suffering only from bruises. He said that he did not wan to have Hack arrested.

When the machine came up the drive it had in it Frank H. Hack, jr., of Baltimore; J. Van Meter Hack, of Virginia, and another man and a woman. In the excitement following the accident a crowd surged around the machine and many of them wanted to mob those in the car, The coolness of the police prevented trouble. Those who were in the machine escaped and returned to their hotel. Later F. H. Hack, of Baltimore, gave bail before Alderman Duke for his son's appearance in court to-morrow. Young Hack and others were fined by Alderman Duke for reckless driving last evening, when they tore down a piece of railing along the boardwalk.

THREE WOMEN INJURED.

Trolleys Crash in Gravesend-ave .-Passengers Jump.

A car of the Reid-ave, line smashed into a car of the Union-st. line at Gravesend-ave, and 86th-st., Sheepshead Bay, about dusk last night. Three women were severely injured, several others fainted nd few passengers escaped without bruises.

All three were violently thrown against the sides of the car in which they were sitting and crushed under the feet of the other passengers. They were treated by a physician from the Coney Island Hospital and taken to their homes. The physician said they were suffering from contusions of the back. Both cars were crowded when the collision oc-curred. The Reid-ave car was running at full speed and dashed into the car ahead with terrific force, smashing the rear platform and throwing the excited passengers against the sides of the car. Some of the passengers in the Union-st. car saw the other car coming and jumped off, narrowly escaping being caught between the fenders of both cars.

HYDE SETS NO TIME FOR RETURN.

Tells Secretary Wilson He Is Coming Back "As Soon as Possible."

John Hyde, former statistician of the Department of Agriculture, in response to Secretary Wilson's cable dispatch urging him to return from England and testify in the proceedings before the special grand jury which is investigating charges against Edwin S. Holmes, the former associate statistician, arrived to-day. The letter was as indefinite as Hyde's recent dispatch to Secretary Wilson, and nothing is known as to his intentions beyond his promise to return "as soon as possible." In the absence of Secretary Wilson, who has gone to Chicago, the letter was turned over to District Attorney Beach, who authorized its publication. It is dated at Southport, England, August 5, and is as follows:

Dear Sir: Your cablegram of July 27 reached me by mail from London, August 2. As I stated in my reply, I will return as soon as possible. A brief delay is unavoidable. The carbuncle from which I suffered shortly after leaving Washington has been followed by a much more serious one, and I am in bad shape altogether. As I wish to avoid going over a third time, I must also see the specialist whom I came over to consult. I have not yet been within two hundred miles of London, and the statement that I was attending the convention of the Statistical Institute was a mistake. Yery respectfully.
